'Only Two Men Apart'

Steel Row In 4th Week

Concilation Offer By Townspeople

Niles' steel dispute dragged midway into its fourth week today with 450 men out of jobs and the big Pacific States steel mill idle.

CIO steelworkers and Pacific States management agreed only that they were deadlocked, with no immediate solution in sight.

However, Leon Curtis, president of Local 3367, USWA, said mill and union are "less than two workers a shift" apart.

Meantime concerned townsfolk in Niles offered to help conciliate the dispute, which arose October 26 when the company proposed to lay off 39 men at the 26-inch rolling mill because of new equipment.

Rev. C. W. Kirkpatrick, Congregational minister, offered to serve on "any kind of a committee which might be set up in achieving a settlement." And E. C. Parks, chairman of the Niles Merchants' Committee, said he would assist in a non-partisan capacity.

However both Curtis and E. C. Thomas, mill manager, said yesterday they would not take advantage of the offer. Curtis said his executive committee "doubted whether outside conciliation would do any good," and Thomas said the company is not interested "at this time."

(Both offers of conciliation were reported exclusively to The Register, and replies also were given to this newspaper.)

Rev. Kirkpatrick said he does not believe "obstacles to an early settlement are insuperable," and asked "why can't work continue while negotiations proceed?"

Parks pointed out that the loss in payroll — estimated at over $250,000 a month—is adversely affecting the entire community of Niles.

Local 3367 has been in "continuous meeting" since October 26 over the proposed layoffs, effectively closing the mill.

Curtis said he has offered to reduce untion demands for 23 men per shift on the 26-inch rolling mill to 14 men per shift, "the minimum we feel we can operate with." Management has countered with "11 or 12 men per shift," Curtis said.

In the mill's open-hearth operations, mill and union are less than two men per shift apart, Curtis added. Management has offered to work 50 men in the three shifts, but the union wants 57.

Further meetings are slated later this week.

Serving with Curtis on the negotiating committee are Buford Barks, Al Nunes, Harry Avila, Kenneth Stedman, Foy Odom and Joe Campbell. International Representative Jim Robinson also attends the meetings at the mill.

Public Asked to Tour Orangeburg Plant Saturday

The public is invited to view Washington Township's newest manufacturing plant Saturday, when the Orangeburg Manufacturing Company, Inc., holds open house in its $2,500,000 pipe factory near Newark.

The plant will be open from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. so that Townshippers and guests may see the latest in soilpipe manufacturing techniques, as exemplified by the New York company.

The invitation was issued by Pres. H. J. Robertson, who is here from the East for the occasion. Robertson and Manager C. G. Dubuque previously hosted the press at a Tuesday preview in the plant, and also held dedicatory ceremonies Wednesday for a host of Bay Area industrialists.

Orangeburg, a nationwide firm, makes soil pipe from paper fibres, asphalt and chemicals.

Its West Coast plant at Newark is its largest outside of the home factory at Orangeburg, N. Y.

Constructed by the Austin Company for Orangeburg, the 85,000-square-foot Newark installation was formally launched Wednesday after 12 months of construction, by California's State Senator Arthur Breed. Said Robertson:

"The plant will employ about 100 people initially. It was planned and designed to accommodate increased national demand in general and, in particular, to facilitate the manufacture and distribution of Orangeburg products to the large and substantial West Coast market. The Newark property also will enable Orangeburg to provide direct and expanded product services to the large plumbing, electrical, and construction industries throughout California and the Pacific Northwest."

Orangeburg was founded in 1893 as a producer of underground electrical fibre conduit. The company later developed a bituminized-fibre drain and sewer pipe which was introduced in 1943. Said the president:

"The bituminized-fibre drain and sewer pipe, during its ten-year period of manufacture and distribution, has been a dynamic success; it is currently responsible for the major portion of the company's total business. Electrical conduit has been supplied over the years to industrial and public utility customers primarily; whereas the pipe represents a very broad consumer market on the home and farm."

NEW TEACHER

Lewellyn J. Gordon, San Jose State and University of Utah graduate, is new sixth grade teacher at Irvington School. The crowded sixth grade this week was divided to afford better instruction, according to Principal Gus Robertson.

NILES YULE PARTY IS DECEMBER 23

Niles merchants once again will play host to young and old of the community this year in a Christmas street party, repetition of 1952's successful

This was decided last week at a meeting of the local Merchants' Committee, headed by E. C. Parks.

Parks tentatively set the night of Wednesday, December 23, as the date for Yuletide carol singing and pageantry at the Southern Pacific Depot.

Parks also named L. S. Whitaker Jr. to head the committee on arrangements. Whitaker was chairman of last year's event.

FUND DRIVE FOR CITYHOOD STUDY

A town-wide campaign to raise $205 for the first step of a cityhood study for Newark was voted Tuesday by the local Chamber of Commerce.

Members followed a recommendation by their board of directors that the campaign be launched. The motion was made by Frank X. Veit.

A director himself, Veit said the money is needed to hire men to check each Newark property parcel in the County Assessor's records "and find out whether we stand to gain or lose financially by incorporating."

Veit stressed the chamber has yet taken no stand on the issue of cityhood. But he and Chamber President Joe Pashote explained "we felt it wasn't a project just for the chamber alone, but for the whole town."

On direction from Pashote, the secretary will write lodges, clubs, the PTA and other groups, asking if they will contribute.

"That way, we'll get financial help and also find out how the other groups stand on incorporation," Pashote said.

PARKING PLEA

Trucks and cars which block the southwest corner of Thornton and Sycamore Avenues in Newark were the subject of a letter of complaint to the Highway Patrol this week. Edward O'Mara brought up the subject at the Tuesday Chamber of Commerce session.

NO INQUEST SET IN MYSTERY DEATH OF DECOTO GIRL

The coroner's office this week apparently had dropped further investigation of the death of 4-year-old Gloria Duran, ward of the county welfare department, who strangled to death in her foster parents' Decoto home last Wednesday.

However, Sheriff's Capt. R. E. Condon said his deputies still are probing "some unusual aspects" of the case.

Gloria was pronounced dead shortly before noon Wednesday after firemen, summoned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Santiago Rocha, 928 Tenth Street, were unable to revive her with a resuscitator.

The child had lived since infancy with the Rochas. Mrs. Rocha, who speaks little English, told Deputy Sheriff Richard Sousa the little girl had called to her that she was choking before she lapsed into a coma.

Sousa said he noticed the child was covered with heavy bruises from the hips down, and that her ankles and wrists were deeply ridged, as though she had been tied.

There also was a recent bite mark on her chest, Sousa said.

The officer said the Rochas denied abusing the child. After an autopsy conducted by Coroner Bernard Bungarz, a pathologist's report showed, according to the coroner's office, that death was due to strangulation caused by a foreign body in Gloria's throat. Bungarz' office said no inquest is scheduled.

Mrs. Rocha told officers this probably was a piece of tomato which the child had been eating before her seizure.

Mrs. Rocha said Gloria called to her as she was readying two older boys, aged 11 and 6 years, for a visit to the barber shop. As the little girl lost consciousness, Mrs. Rocha said, she picked her up and rushed outside.

A neighbor, Herbert Vincent, ran to the firehouse two doors away, and Dr. Morgan Lee also was summoned. He pronounced Gloria dead.

Funeral services were Saturday in Berge Mortuary Company chapel, Niles, with interment in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

LOW BID $193,600 FOR IRVINGTON SCHOOL ANNEX

Work on 10 new classrooms and related offices for the Irvington Elementary School will be under way within days.

This word comes with announcement that a Belmont contractor was low bidder at $193,600 for the job.

Supt. of Schools Gus Robertson said Wilfred May of Belmont was the successful bidder out of a dozen who tried for the contract. The bids ranged as high as $217,313.

Robertson expressed himself well pleased with the bids. He said Architect George Ellinger of Oakland had privately estimated the work would cost $224,000.

The contract includes nine classrooms, a kindergarten, health offices, a teachers' room, paving, fencing and a bus garage—all northwest of the present buildings.

Robertson stressed May's bid cannot be accepted until it is checked by the District Attorney's office. Contracts are being prepared this week by that office.

Robertson said he expects the district will have to build another school south of town shortly, if subdividers' plans materialize. More than 2000 homes are projected there.

"I expect we'll have to call another bond election and get State aid, sometime next spring," the superintendent said.

VISKING EXECUTIVE DIES IN CRASH

Claude E. Hinsey, 28, office manager for the Visking Corporation, Centerville plastics firm, was killed early Thursday morning when the car in which he was a passenger crashed through a guard rail on the west approach of Dumbarton Bridge.

The driver, Harold I. Blackmore, 40, superintendent of the firm, is in serious condition in Palo Alto Hospital with head injuries.

Highway Patrolman Wiley Nuget said the westbound car apparently failed to negotiate a curve and crossed the road to plow through the guard rail, a piece of which went through the windshield and impaled Hinsey. He was pronounced dead on arrival at Palo Alto Hospital.

The two were returning from a party marking the first anniversary of the Visking Corporation's plant at Centerville. The firm has its headquarters in Chicago and established a $500,000 West Coast plant last year.

Hinsley had lived in Palo Alto seven years. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Corinne Hinsey; two children, Gloria and Roy; his father, Earl Hinsey of Indiana, and two brothers, Robert and Carl Hinsley, also of Indiana.

Funeral services were in Palo Alto.

RITES HERE FOR AXEL G. BURKMAN

Funeral services were held Monday from Chapel of the Palms, Centerville, for Axel G. Burkman, 56, employee of a Newark foundry fgor the past six years, who died at a Hayward hospital Thursday after a brief illness.

He was the husband of Agnes Burkman, 141 Washington Avenue, Centerville, and was a member of the Hayward American Legion Post.

Interment was in Golden Gate Cemetery.

$600,000 Phone Exchange to Link Irvington, Mission, Warm Springs

Irvington, Mission San Jose and Warm Springs will be able to dial each other if a $600,000 phone exchange now being considered for Irvington becomes a reality.

This announcement came last week from S. D. Smith, district manager for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company.

Smith told The Register the PT&T is considering installation of a modern dial office on property it has bought at Washington Street and Broadway. A permit for the installation was granted three weeks ago.

"The new office would be completely automatic, and would replace the present magneto office in Irvington and the offices in Mission San Jose and Warm Springs in order to provide intercommunity dialing," Smith went on.

Before the three exchanges can be consolidated, however, approval must be obtained from the California Public Utilities Commission, the manager explained.

Present PT&T schedules call for completion of the job, including large telephone-exchange lines, by September, 1955, Smith said.

If approved, the plan would include "readjustment in message-unit and long-distance charges, Smith added. Said he:

"This plan is the first step toward the company's ultimate objective of improving and consolidating telephone service and providing direct dialing between all communities in Washington Township."

Irvington is the only Township town now lacking dial service.

Smith said the program was planned in the tri-town area because of impending development in homes and industry, including the Ford assembly plant at Milpitas, seven miles south of Irvington.

INTER-TOWN DIAL SERVICE BY 1957?

Inter-city dialing, now planned for the south end of Washington Township (see above) may come to Centerville and other north Township communities around 1957.

This was the word of S. D. Smith, district manager for the PT&T, as relayed to Centerville Chamber of Commerce members Monday.

Smith said the obstacles are (1) lack of funds to establish the necessary central dial office, and (2) the necessity of getting Irvington and other south Township towns onto a common dial system first.

"But our long-range plans for the Township are what you want," Smith stressed. "Perhaps we'll be able to engineer the intercity system in 1957. Our surveys show so much growth is coming to this area that it'd amaze you."

The phone executive pointed out that in the meantime, PT&T is spending $30,000 to improve service in Centerville alone this year, and that by next March, the town will have a total of 1469 phones, nearly 500 more than at present.

Smith contended that faster expansion of the 'phone system won't be possible, however, unless the State Public Utilities Commission grants PT&T rate increases. The increases are set for hearing next month.

'TOWN-RIGHTERS' RAP TOWNSHIP CC

A sharp blast at alleged "meddling" in local chamber of commerce affairs by the Washington Township Chamber was levelled Tuesday in Newark.

Frank X. Veit, director of the Newark Chamber, won support for directors' action in recommending (1) that towns' voting delegates be alloted by the central body on the basis of $40 dues apiece, and (2) that membership remain limited to town chambers.

"The trouble is," said Veit, "the Township Chamber has gotten away from us. It was formed to work on matters that concern the Township as a whole. But in the past year, they've been interfering in the affairs of the individual towns."

Veit and Pres. Joe Pashote declared the $40-per-vote plan "not only would raise more money, but would be fairer." They said Newark, with three delegates, now pays $120 a year dues whereas "some other towns with three only pay $30 per year."

FIREMEN'S BALL

Decoto volunteer firemen will hold their annual ball Saturday night at the Newark Pavilion.

PLANS FOR 470 HOMES AT NEWARK

Plans were announced this week for a 470-home subdivision to be built between Newark and Centerville during the next five years.

The builder is David Kvistad, contractor, who constructed more than 100 homes in Newark during the past two years.

Kvistad told The Register the homes will be located on 80 acres he has optioned from the Milani Estate, located on Thornton Avenue east of Birch, behind the Assembly of God Church.

"Price averaged $5000 an acre," he added.

The contractor said the houses will be in the $10,000 class, with conventional floors and pitched roofs, patios and "all the necessities for outdoor living."

Construction of model homes wil start near the church shortly after January 1, Kvistad said, and will start near the church shortly built. He explained the land has been bought on a contract extending over five years.

Kvistad said he picked the site because of its central location and because of expected growth in Newark.

IRVINGTON SEEKS $500 FOR DECOR

Irvington will have to pony up some $500 if it wants a Nativity scene in its park this year.

The local Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday voted to solicit the funds from merchants and townsfolk alike. Walter Connolly heads the committee in charge. The statuary would be a permanent exhibit at Christmastime.

Christmas lights will be hung this year as usual, President Wallace Pond reported.

Merchants Spur 'Keep-Niles-Clean,' 'Shop-at-Home'

Added impetus to a clean-up, sweep-up campaign for Niles was gained at a meeting of the Niles Merchants' Committee last week.

Merchants present decided to price 25-gallon oil drums for use as street-corner trash receptacles. They also demanded an educational campaign, aimed at making the public "Niles Cleanup" conscious.

President E. C. Parks referred the trash-barrel program to Caesar DiGiulio, who heads the subcommittee on street cleanliness. It was suggested that the drums be painted white, and that they bear a sign "Help Keep Niles Clean."

C. W. Chrysler pointed up the difficulties of street cleanliness, saying that the public tosses papers and wrappers into the street as a matter of habit, and that wind 'seems to blow them all into one or two corners" at I and J Streets.

Chrysler suggested a brief loudspeaker campaign to embarrass paper-tossers. Supt. of Schools E. Dixon Bristow pledged his aid in launching an educational campaign in the school, with letters to be sent to parents urging them to help.

Rev. C. W. Kirkpatrick, Congregational minister, said he hoped churches and Sunday Schools will cooperate.

Parks reported the recent merchant-sponsored Halloween party a big success, with more than 450 youngsters taking part, and "trick-or-treat" calls cut to less than a fifth of normal throughout the town.

The merchants agreed to embark on a campaign to advertise the necessity of supporting local business by shopping in Niles.

Gregg Romps, Campbell Wins, 19-0 As Storm Ends Game at Half

By BOB HIRD

Fleet 220-pound Fullback Bill Gregg proved an able mudder as he led his Campbell Buccaneers to a 19-0 win over the Washington Huskies in a driving rainstorm last Friday, in a game that was called at the halftime by mutual agreement of the coaches.

The Huskies play their last game of the season tomorrow night when they face the Fremont Indians at Sunnyvale.

Last Friday's contest was marred by a heavy downpour, but Gregg, an All-SCVAL back, proved why he earned this berth, as he ran wild on the mud-drenched field.

The Buc's first tally came in the opening minutes of the first period, when Gregg boomed over tackle and ran 32 yards to score, down the south sidelines.

Gregg again broke off tackle midway in the initial period and romped 65 yards to the goal, but the play was called back on an offside penalty.

The Bucs widened the margin to 13-0 just before the quarter ended as Gregg bulled his way over from the two. The Bucs workhorse also plunged over for the extra point.

Don Davis, Campbell right halfback, scored the final touchdown midway through the second period, when he rammed over from three yards out.

The Bucs had still another touchdown called back in the second period. Larry Sutton's 70-yard jaunt was nullified by a penalty after he picked off one of Husky Quarterback Allan Olk's passes.

The Huskies got an offensive drive going in the final minutes of the second quarter, but the gun sounded, ending the half, and the game, with the ball resting on the Campbell two-yard line.

The heavy rains choked the Husky offense. Olk had trouble completing his usual accurate passes to Halfbacks Raul Orozco and Dan Owen and Left End Carl Von Euw. The Bucs' heftier defensive line stopped the Orange and Blacks' running in the sticky footing.

The win for Campbell put them in first place, since Fremont, which was tied for first with the Bucs, was rained out of its contest with second-place Santa Clara. The Huskies could wreck all Indian hopes of garnering league honors tomorrow night by beating the powerful Fremont 11. The Indians are paced by Quarterback Jerry Hitchman and Fullback Jim Mason.

Kickoff time: 8 p.m.

Score by quarters:

Washington	0	0	0	0	0
Campbell	13	6	0	0	19

'SPRINGS SEWER ANNEX IS TOPIC

Warm Springs will try to revive interest in a plan to annex itself to the Irvington Sanitary District.

Chamber of Commerce President Charles Venturi said this week annexation will top the organization's agenda at its December 10 meeting. A district to procure water from the Hetch-Hetchy pipeline, or from other sources, also will be discussed.

Members are being circularized on the importance of sewer and water facilities in view of the development expected to stem from the Ford plant at nearby Milpitas, Venturi explained.

DUCK SHOOT TOO GOOD FOR HUNTERS

Six prominent Bay Area businessmen forfeited a total of $1200 to Judge E. A. Quaresma last week rather than explain why they assertedly shot 33 ducks more than the legal limit.

Cited at a Newark duck club on November 8 were F. J. and I. W. Hellman, bankers; R. H. Ranshoff, merchant; Walter S. Heller, investment broker, all of San Francisco; Cordon Coryell, Woodside; and B. E. Nowland, San Rafael. All posted $200 bail.

They were cited by Game Warden George Nelson, who reported the six had a total of 99 ducks, 33 over the legal limit of 11 apiece.

'C' Cagers Lose

Washington Hi's C hoopsters lost their chance for a co-championship last Thursday as they dropped a thrilling 37-35 decision to the Mountain View Eagles' quintet on the local court.

A 20-foot field goal by Eagle Forward Manuel Dutra with 30 seconds remaining in the contest gave Mountain View the margin.

Manuel Avila paced the Orange and Black as he bucketed 16 points. The Cs ended their season with an overall won-lost record of 8-5.

The Husky Ds also suffered a defeat at the hands of the Eagles, losing 28-25. The Ds had a season record of 1-12.

Raincheck Game

The Bearcat nine takes on the Yellowjackets next Sunday at Washington Hi diamond, to complete the first half of East Oakland Winter League play.

Last Sunday's game with the Yellowjackets was rained out.

PHEASANT SEASON OPENS SATURDAY

California's upland game gunners — some quarter million of them — will be afield at eight o'clock Saturday morning to open the State-wide pheasant hunting season.

More than a third of the pheasant hunters will spend some time during the 10-day season on one of the State's 17 pheasant cooperative hunting areas. About 150,000 acres of private farmland in the Central Valley's "pheasant bowl" will be available to free public shooting.

Bearing a hunting license and $1 pheasant tags, nimrods may take two male ringnecks per day or ten per season. One female bird per day or five per season may be possessed in the counties of San Benito, Monterey, San Luis Obispo, Kern, San Bernardino, Santa Barbara, Venturia, Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside, San Diego and Imperial.

Quail hunting, legal since October 31 in a dozen central and north coastal counties, becomes a State-wide affair on November 21. Both quail and brush and cottontail rabbit hunting ends December 15 in Northeastern California and December 31 elsewhere. Daily bag limits are eight quail and four rabbits.

To Alameda Dance

Pat Hunt, Cathy Oxborrow, Darlene Wilson, Rowena Harrison, Marlene Maughan, Carol Pugmire, Marlene Rogers, Everett Green, Dennis Moffatt, Bob Hunt, Lee Basinger, Bob Martin and Conley Sheppard attended a "Dog Patch" dance Saturday night at the L.D.S. Church in Alameda, sponsored by the Mia Maids, mutual organization for the Mormon Church.

They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Jed Oxborrow, Mrs. Lee Wilson and Mrs. Ruth Hunt.

Week-End Guests

Week-end guests of Rev. and Mrs. Martin Tonner of Newark were his father, Fred L. Tonner, and his sister and her husband, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Baker of Orinda, and their four daughters, Carolyn, student at Stanford; Linda, an Acalanes High School student; and the younger girls, Kay Lou and Mary.

Reported Recovering

John Lee Perniz, 10, who was seriously injured nearly three weeks ago when he accidentally discharged a shotgun into his abdomen, has been transferred from Fairmont Hospital to Children's Hospital of the East Bay and is reportedly out of danger. His parents and younger sister live at 1006 Duarte Avenue, Niles.

When we came West, we found out...
Gas and electricity are cheap in California says Mrs. John Q. Jones, of Menlo Park, shown with her daughter, Linda
How P.G. and E.'s low rates save the Joneses money
The Joneses' P.G. and E. bill for a recent month was $12.39
In their former home the same amount of gas and electricity would cost $23.24

"I wonder if most Californians actually realize how little they pay for gas and electricity," asks Mrs. Jones. "When we moved West six years ago, we found these services cost far less here than where we used to live."

How many things can you think of that are still available at prewar prices? Yet P.G. and E.'s combined rates are actually lower now than in 1938. So let low-cost gas and electricity do more of your work, make your life more pleasant.

SWEDISH CONSUL EXPLAINS NEUTRALITY

Sweden's strict neutrality in the Cold War was described here last week as a practical solution by a nation too close to Russia for sabre-rattling.

Manne Lindholm, Consul-General of Sweden in San Francisco, told members of the Niles Rotary Club his country declined to join the Atlantic Pact "because we're still on the same side of the fence as the bull, and that makes you think twice before waving a red flag."

He said the Swedes felt Russia would regard participation in the Pact "as a challenge," since Sweden was militarily stronger than any other European nation except Britain. Sweden can field 600,000 trained and equipped men in 24 hours, and has the world's fourth-largest effective air force, Lindholm explained.

"However, there is no doubt where our sympathies lie," Lindholm stressed. He reminded the Rotarians that Sweden was the first power to recognize the U.S. in Revolutionary times, and that her trade and her ideology are close to America's.

Lindholm said his country (1) took no Marshall Plan aid, (2) now boasts 140 per cent of prewar industrial output, and (3) has the highest standard of living in Europe.

"We are not a socialistic state," Lindholm emphasized." However, our old age pensions, medical assistance program and related items are progressive enough to keep Communism from gaining a foothold." Only four per cent of industry is run by the Swedish government, he said.

Lindholm characterized Sweden as a country which, exhausted by 100 years of war under Gustavus Adolphus and Charles XII, turned to stern neutrality 200 years ago to develop her own resources and help her neighbors.

The consul-general was introduced by John Pihl.

YULE SEAL DRIVE OPENS IN NEWARK

Christmas Seals will be in the mail before Thanksgiving, according to Mrs. Elmer Harris, Newark chairman of the Christmas Seal campaign.

"This is the sole public appeal for funds of the Alameda County Tuberculosis and Health Association," Mrs. Harris stresses. "The association is not a participating member in the United Crusade."

Mrs. J. R. Whipple, area chairman, announced that in the Washington Township survey in October, 3,757 persons received free x-rays, compared to 1,170 in 1952. This is one of the services made possible by purchase of Christmas Seals.

A nation-wide composition project is being conducted by Columbia National Scholastic Press Association and the National Tuberculosis Association, with 14 of the 17 Alameda County high schools already entered. Last year, two Washington Union High School students received national prizes.

The Association also carries on an adult educational program at the Arroyo del Valle Sanitorium in Livermore.

Niles PTA to Sponsor Cubs

Niles Grammar School PTA meeting was called to order November 10 in the school auditorium by Mrs. Ted Logan, president. Winners of the membership campaign were Miss Curran's first grade and Mrs. Murphy's fifth grade. They will be given parties.

Members voted to sponsor the Niles Cub Pack and also to allot more funds to be used for playground equipment.

Speaker for the afternoon was Mrs. Naoma Troxell, co-ordinator of guidance services from the county superintendent's office, who spoke on problems of child learning.

Musical numbers were presented by Larry and Richard Robbins on the steel guitar and accordian. Refreshments were served in the cafeteria with fifth and sixth grade mothers as hostesses.

Next meeting date has been changed to the third Tuesday, December 15. This will be an evening meeting starting at 7:30. Students will present a Christmas program.

NILES FIREMEN TO SELL TREES

Members of the Niles Volunteer Firemen's Association are going "back to the woods" to raise Christmas funds.

The firemen will sell Yule trees in a lot located next to the Niles Theater. They hope to make the sale an annual affair.

Don Allen, committeeman in charge, said the lot will open December 1, and will feature silvertop, Douglas and white fur trees, each with a stand attached.

The money will go toward Christmas recreation, and may be the starter for compensation insurance, which the firemen now do not have if injured in line of duty.

Congressman Here

Congressman George P. Miller will be introduced to local residents on Friday, November 20, at 8:15 p.m. in the Alameda County Office Building, at the regular meeting of the Washington Township Democratic Club.

Rep. Miller has been invited to talk on his views of political problems at home and abroad.

How to make good telephone service even better....

memo to a popular 'teen-ager...

Dear Susan: We're leaving this little note for you to read the next time you're at the telephone.

We want you to know we're delighted that the telephone rings so often for you these days ... and that you have so many friends to call.

But we hope you'll remember that we share this line with our telephone neighbors. They like to use it, too. And, of course, we know you'll keep in mind that no one can call us as long as the line is tied up. Lovingly, Mother and Dad.

DEXTER OR SINISTER

Revival of the case of Harry Dexter White has raised one of those storms of controversy which foreigners find so odd in us Americans. In a speech in Chicago on November 6, Attorney General Brownell said White had been classed as a Soviet spy by the FBI, and that ex-President Truman had known about it, and still had promoted White to be director of the International Monetary Fund. Immediately Mr. Truman cracked back that he had never seen the FBI reports, then had to back-track when ex-Secretary of State Byrnes said he and Mr. Truman had discussed them.

The warmed-up affair seemed to show the former President in the light of abetting Soviet espionage. And the turmoil boiled to new heights when the Republican chairman of the House UnAmerican Activities Committee tried unsuccessfully to subpoena Mr. Truman to explain his actions.

President Eisenhower alone maintained his calm amid the charges and counter-charges. He said he could not believe that his predecessor would knowingly harbor a Russian spy, and that the subpoena was a mistake.

Meantime, Mr. Truman took the counter-offensive, claiming that maybe he did know something was fishy about White, but that he didn't want to alarm the Treasury official because he hoped through White the FBI could catch the whole Soviet spy ring.

The pattern of the White affair has been slow to emerge. It seems possible that something was wrong with White, who inconveniently died five years back just after being quizzed about his Red connections. White was mentioned as a Communist—or at least as an active fellow-traveler—by Whitaker Chambers and Elizabeth Bentley. So were several other government officials of the era. From White's background, he seems to have been bitter as well as brilliant, fertile ground for Russian suggestions that Russia would save the world from Nazi terror and democratic stupidity. White is dead, and many who were accused with him still live, free men.

Attorney-General Brownell's bombshell will hardly touch White's fellow-travelers, safe behind the statute of limitations, like Alger Hiss. It did bring Harry Truman out swinging.

We believe Mr. Brownell's blast, and Congressman Velde's subpoena were ill-advised. Mr. Brownell can scarcely hope to flush Communists by belaboring a dead horse—Truman laxness and poor judgment. The Reds who might have hidden behind this policy are now long gone. From a political standpoint, there is even less to gain. The voters gave the sign last November that they didn't approve of the acts of the Democratic administration—coddling Reds included.

As for the subpoena, we disapprove strongly. The President of the United States, as Mr. Eisenhower pointed out, must be presumed to act from the highest motives. These motives cannot be questioned "after the fact" by quasi-judicial bodies, especially those staffed with politicians.

To permit this would remove freedom of action from the Presidency. The President is an elected officer, and if the people don't approve of his policies, they have the option of voting him out of that office. Meantime, he must be free to act as his judgment dictates.

We think it would be cooperative if Mr. Truman would tell what he knows about White—and any other ex-officials accused of treason. But the past record of investigating committees is tainted with partisanship, and we're afraid that more heat than light would be generated by Mr. Truman's appearance

SCHOOL CROSSING SAFETY

In a letter to the State Division of Highways, our Assemblyman, Francis Dunn Jr., suggests several highway safety measures around schools. He cites the Valle Vista School, north of Decoto, but makes it clear that others are in similar peril. Mr. Dunn would have the division install larger "School Zone" speed lmit signs, with flashing yellow signals. He also suggests "that all crossing guards be required to wear a distinctive coat of bright red or yellow, together with a white Sam Browne belt. Their usual attire is either tan or gray, which is almost a camoflage suit."

Mr. Dunn's concern with school matters is consistent with his well-known championship of education, and does him credit. In the interests of highway safety for our children, the State department ought to give attentive ear to his suggestions.

FAIR WARNING

Note to the young men who use First Street, Niles, for a drag-race strip: next time you whip past the theater at 65, watch out for the wires. A couple of old Commandos remember how to stop a speeding car, especially if it stands to run down a child somewhere about D Street.

SUZY SEZ...

What Township figure who complains about the "inadequate highway protection" has been silent ever since he was nabbed for going forty-five in a twenty-five mile zone?
